Scholarship Application

ELIGIBILITY

Any person pursuing a level of higher education in a housing industry related field is eligible to apply for a scholarship. Scholarship recipients must:

- ☞ Submit a copy of high school diploma or GED; or
- ☞ Submit a copy of transcripts through most current completed semester [high school or college]; and
- ☞ Be accepted by a state accredited vo-tech school, an accredited two year junior or community college, four year college or university, or enrolled as an undergraduate student; and
- ☞ Be pursuing study in a housing industry related field. Such fields may include, but are not limited to, masonry, plumbing, electrical, HVAC, carpentry and cabinetry, architecture, business, drafting, building science, or other housing industry related studies; and
- ☞ Be a resident of Mobile County or contiguous counties.

SELECTION

There are five members of the HBA Scholarship Selection Committee who will review all scholarship applications. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academics, service and activities, career goals, and financial need.

AWARDS

Awards, in the minimum amount of $500 each award, will be made by the HBA Scholarship Selection Committee pursuant to approval by the Home Builders Association of Metro Mobile, Inc. Board of Directors. HBA Scholarship awards shall be for one academic year and shall be in amounts determined by the HBA Scholarship Selection Committee.

The scholarship award may be used by the student for tuition, books, equipment, or room and board, but it must be dispersed by the institution to which the recipient has enrolled.

Interested persons must fill out the HBA Scholarship Application in its entirety and mail it to the HBA Scholarship Selection Committee of the Home Builders Association of Metro Mobile, Inc. The HBA Scholarship recipients will be announced at each June Home Builders Association Board of Directors meeting. Scholarship award letters will be mailed to the recipients no later than June 15th of the year presented. Note: Previous applicants and recipients must reapply each year.
